QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE

About the Console Keypad

The console keypad is used for dialing. call processing, and accessing system features.

You can adjust the slope of the keypad and detach or from (or attach it to) the handset cradle.

You can also use the console keypad to maximize and minimize the Main Window Directories and Queued Calls panels.

Use Volume to increase (+) or decrease (-) the ringer and earpiece volume in the handset or headset. Mute enables/disables the microphone in the headset or headset.

To maximize/minimize a panel

1. Press the associated keypad key, for example, Phone Book, or Incoming Calls.

If the panel was maximized on screen at the first keypad press, it is minimized.

If the panel was minimized on screen at the first keypad press, it is maximized.

2. Press the associated key to toggle between the maximized and minimized views.

Remote Operation

To place the Mitel 5550 IP Console in Remote Mode for teleworking:

- 1. Press the Volume UP key (+) while powering up the console.
- 2. To exit from Remote Operation, press Volume DOWN (-) key while powering up the console.
- Note: For more information on how to program your IP Phone for remote operation, see your System Administrator.

Using the Console Keypad
